It's hard to believe tonight you are receiving your high school diploma. I still remember your 4K diploma. I am so proud of the young man you have become. You have worked hard and I am excited to watch you grow in your new adventure at Marquette. I love you so much Johnny. Congratulations!

13 years ago, you were a timid kindergartener afraid to raise your hand. Look at you now. As a kindergarten teacher, I love to see how kids grow and it was wonderful to have you in my room again as a student helper this year. You will be a wonderful teacher some day and I wish you all the best in college!
